HIGHLIGHTS FROM THE PRESS – J.L. WOLF 2008

J.L. WOLF WACHENHEIMER BELZ RIESLING SPÄTLESE (TROCKEN), 2008

[89] Stephen Tanzer's International Wine Cellar
White peach and mint on the nose. Luscious but firm flavors of bright star fruit and spicy minerality shape. The cool spicy finish offers pleasing length.

J.L. WOLF FORSTER PECHSTEIN RIESLING SPÄTLESE (TROCKEN), 2008

[90] Stephen Tanzer's International Wine Cellar
Exotic aromas of apricot pit, muskmelon and lemon oil. Rich and dense in texture, with pleasing depth of peach pit and smoky spice flavors typical of the site. Finishes with lingering notes of herbs and clove.

VILLA WOLF PINOT NOIR, 2007

★★★★+ Restaurant Wine

Great value. A full bodied, moderately intense Pinot Noir, with supple texture, firm acidity, good character (plum, rosehips, cherry), and a medium long finish.

VILLA WOLF RIESLING DRY, 2008

★★★★★ Restaurant Wine

Intensely flavored, dry, and medium bodied, this Riesling is very complex in character (peach, honey, litchi nut, pineapple, passion fruit), and long on the finish. Great value. Issues #153 e3 #154
