2007 Pfalz Villa Wolf Silvaner

Crisp, racy and bright, this shows sleek flavors of green apple, white nectarine and lemon curd. It's lively and refreshing. Best Buy

88 Villa Wolf 2007 Riesling Trocken (Pfalz)

Light, delicate and dry, this shows Ernie Loosen's Mosel touch. Lime, peach and melon notes add airy nuances over the underlying briny minerality of the Pfalz. Finishes long and slightly peppery-spicy. Best Buy.

88 Villa Wolf 2007 Pinot Gris (Pfalz)

Villa Wolf, Ernst Loosen's Pfalz venture, had several hits in 2007, including this medium-bodied, dry Pinot Gris. Orange and tangerine notes marry easily on the palate with stony notes of crushed rock. Falls somewhere between Alsace and Italy in style and weight—an attractive combination at a realistic price. Best Buy.

88 Villa Wolf 2007 Silvaner (Pfalz)

Silvaners rarely boast this kind of charm and forward fruit. This one combines apple and citrus notes into a round yet crisp package with overtones of pineapple. This should make a refreshing summer sipper. Best Buy.

87 Villa Wolf 2007 Gewürztraminer (Pfalz)

Made in an off-dry style, the Villa Wolf 2007 Gewürz boasts classic musky aromas of lychee and spice and even develops some rose-like notes on the palate. It's medium bodied, finishing soft and mellow. Best Buy.

Villa Wolf Pinot Gris 2007

Made by Ernst Loosen on an estate across the border from Alsace. Fresh pear and white peach nose, ripe and creamy on the palate with lifted spice. Just off-dry but with good acidity, this is a great white wine for the warmer weather, enjoyed with or without food.

Anthony Dias Blue: The Tasting Panel

Villa Wolf 2007 Pinot Gris (88)

Juicy and bright with a touch of sweetness and lots of racy acidity; long, clean and nervy.

J.L. Wolf, 2007 Riesling, Wachenheimer Belz

A nose of floral, apricot, mineral, pear, and a petrol note. Bright, juicy, not sweet flavors of pear, lemon, under-ripe apricot, and floral finish medium-long and narrow at the front and broad at the back.

Issues #131 & 132, September 2009

J.L. Wolf, 2007 Forster Pechstein Spätlese ★★★★★

Fine Quality: off dry, medium bodied, and very floral and fruity in character; a wine with refined aromas/flavors (cherimoya, honeysuckle, peach, grapefruit), and a very long finish.
